The SLSNSW Talented Athlete Program will be comprised of promising athletes from ages U13-U15 for the 2010-11 competition season who have shown promising results in surf sports. SLSNSW is also calling for interested accredited coaches looking to gain and develop further coaching skills by participating at the camp.

The program aims to provide:

- Elite performance pathways for Surf Sports in NSW.
- Athlete development opportunities within Surf Sports.
- Ongoing athletic improvement.
- Improved athlete education and retention.
- Improved technique, skills and performance of athletes.
- Continual improvement of the standard of Surf Sports in NSW.

The program will involve a three day training camp in the school holidays from 6-8 October, 2010 at the Sydney Academy of Sport, Wakehurst Parkway, Narrabeen and will include training sessions analysing technique and improving skills across all disciplines. The program will also consist of athlete education sessions including nutrition, recovery and training techniques and will provide athletes with exposure to the most experienced and successful coaches in NSW. Most of the expenses associated with this program will be covered by SLSNSW, however there will be a small levy (between $100 and $150 TBC) for the athletes selected in this program. The levy will cover athlete accommodation and meals.

To nominate for this program, interested athletes and accredited coaches are asked to complete the attached nomination forms (including club endorsement) and submit to your Branch Office or Branch Director of Surf Sports by no later than 5pm Friday 3rd September 2010.

Successful applications will be notified by Monday 13th September 2010.
